Description:

Review "The most perfect of all the Dickens novels."
--Virginia Woolf

From the Trade Paperback edition. --This text refers to an alternate edition.

From the Publisher Young Copperfield's life is happy at first, but he is forced to run away from home following the arrival of his stepfather. David is then adopted by his aunt, Betsey Trotwood, sent to school at Canterbury and meets the unctuous Uriah Heep, whose activities lead eventually to David's self-discovery. --This text refers to the edition.
